ARMA ACE AWARDS SHORTLIST REVEALED

ARMA (the Association of Residential Managing Agents) have announced the shortlisted finalists in the ARMA ACE Awards. The Awards celebrate excellence and exceptional achievement by the UK's leading residential managing agents, Partners and suppliers and the work of their people in improving the lives of thousands of leaseholders across the country.

Future Lighting & Electrical, one of the leading industry suppliers to the property management sector, was announced as a shortlisted entry in the customer service category following a rigorous judging process by a panel of independent judges. The winners will be revealed at an Awards Dinner on Friday 6th July in the stunning surroundings of Tobacco Dock, London E1. The event will provide a fun-packed evening of live music, fine dining and exciting entertainment.

Dr Nigel Glen, ARMA CEO, said: "The quality of entries has been outstanding, setting the standard for companies that wish to be recognised for achieving excellence, best practice in their field, and ultimately leading to the improvement in the lives of leaseholders."

The Awards are open to ARMA members, Partners, associates and external suppliers to ARMA members and include several categories not covered by other awards.
